Chateau La Pompe, CHARDONNAY, ½ Carafe (3 glasses) $ 14

1749, SAUVIGNON BLANC, Loire Valley, France $ 26

Zesty, lemony aromas. Citrus fruit on the palate, well balanced, crisp and refreshing.

Food Pairing ~ white meats including chicken and pork chops. Especially well paired with fish including trout, mussels, crab, lobster and clams.

Gerard Betrand, PICPOUL, Languedoc, France $ 36

Soft, delicate nose, with pleasant hints of acacia and hawthorn blossom, with an excellent acid/structure balance. 100% Picpoul grape variety.

Food Pairing ~ ideally suited to accompany shellfish such as mussels and clams. Also pairs well with fish.

Château Graille-Lacoste, BORDEAUX BLANC, Bordeaux, France $ 33

*This amazing medium bodied white Bordeaux is crisp, slightly dry and delivers a full rich fruity herbal character with a fresh lingering finish. NEW!

Food Pairing ~ beef steak tartare, oysters, chicken, cod, lobster and duck pate.

Champs Royeaux Fevre, CHABLIS, Burgundy, France $ 52

Fresh supple bouquet with notes of citrus and white fleshed fruit, with a very slight oaky finish.

Food Pairing ~ very gratifying with all shellfish and seafood especially lobster, raw oysters, and mussels. French cheeses such as Brie or Camembert offer tasty alternatives also.

Trimbach, PINOT GRIS, Alsace, France $ 56

Full-bodied with ripe smoky tropical fruit flavors and a long nutty finish.

Food Pairing ~ top pairings include white meats such as chicken or veal. Duck pate and foie gras offer delicious and tasty options also.
